SpaBeautySchools.com Featured School of the Week January 6, 2008: Ohio Institute of Energetic Studies

Interested in a new way of healing? With the growing demand for qualified natural healthcare therapists, the Ohio Institute of Energetic Studies provides prospective students with a progressive, educational environment that trains candidates to become successful Polarity Therapy practitioners.

The Ohio Institute of Energetic Studies teaches future practitioners how to integrate energy-based bodywork (facilitating the human energy field) with diet and exercise; in addition to self-awareness programs that help clients to release blocked energy flow, thus achieving overall wellbeing.

One of the career-training courses at Ohio Institute of Energetic Studies is its in-depth, 160-hour APP (Associate Polarity Practitioner) Certification program. In this extensive course of study, students learn the theory and principles of polarity therapy, anatomy and physiology, energetic evaluation and assessment skills, polarity energetic bodywork, and energetic Nutrition, among other essential training.

The RPP (Registered Polarity Practitioner) program at Ohio Institute of Energetic Studies combines classes from the APP program and offers advanced coursework(through training modules) including Aromatherapy, cranial sacral therapy, Bach Flower remedies, modern medicine integration in polarity therapy, chakra balancing, herbal studies, and sound/healing therapies.

Additional natural healing certification programs include coursework in essential herbs; which is comprised of studies in herbal basics, history and nature of herbs, buying and using herbs, proper identification of herbs, herbal preparations, herbal gardening, Materia Medica, aromatherapy, and more.

The Ohio Institute of Energetic Studies also extends elective and continuing education programs in energy movement, polarity yoga, and energy medicine (<http://spa-wellness.spabeautyschools.com/content/article/energy-healing-studies-energy-healing-programs/3618/334/>); plus, professional CEUs (continuing education units) are available to chiropractors, physical therapists, nurses, and other professional healthcare providers.

Is becoming a polarity practitioner right for you? If you're seeking an innovative healing education, and like working with the public; or if you are currently a medical healthcare provider seeking to expand healthcare services, then apply to the Ohio Institute of Energetic Studies here:
