

New spiritual "Apple" Book: Not your grandmother's religion!

Unearth the spiritual lie of your life and find freedom and abundance.

Authors and Book are Guaranteed to Serve up some Discussion
Canfield, OH " January 2008) THE APPLE YOU WERE FED is based on authors, Kimberly Lisowski and Andrea Pouliot's, literally hundreds of hours of research into the short comings of two trusted belief systems: psychology and Christianity, as well as their own personal experiences within the church " one leaving unimpressed, one staying to run a mini PR campaign for God.

When agnostic liberal, Kimberly, moved in across the street from conservative Christian, Andrea, no-one expected a friendship, especially a friendship that would lead them to uncover the deepest secrets of their lives. Together with verbal shovels and buckets of coffee, they fought past their usual demeanors seeking a deeper understanding of life and God. Who was He? Why did His message seem so hard to live out? What they unearthed was not expected or planned. The universal lie they uncovered changed their perspectives of God's love, and thus brought meaning back into their stagnant lives. This universal lie, the power of the whole Message to transform lives, and what the church and its people do to hold it back is told through the private and sometimes controversial conversations of two women who should have never been friends.
