

Bryan Turbow Discusses Bishershop Beads

In his search for extraordinary and weird domain names, IT geek finds a real winner.

In his quest to find the weirdest, most popular domain names, Bryan Turbow has launched a site referring to "Bisershop" at <http://www.bisershop.com>.

"The best explanation I could locate referred to Russian Beaded Beds and somehow involved orphans in Russia", said Turbow.

He has launched a basic site in order to attract any further information available about the Bisershop topic.
