NN Music, the talented songwriter duo from Weatherford, TX, has just released their latest CD's, a single release- "Ole Blue Eyes" and a full-length CD- "NN Music". Both CD's are available for any listener wanting more. Crisp and clean with a modern feel that doesn't forget or leave behind their country or contemporary roots, the songs range from fun-loving honky tonk jams to easy listening/swing style. Music fans across the board will find much to enjoy in both CD's.

Both "Ole Blue Eyes" and "NN Music" are being made available for sale via many distributors including I-tunes, eMusic and others. Ringtones are available at Myxertones. CD's and Songs can also be purchased directly from the official NN Music website at www.nnmusic.net.

NN Music is comprised of Norma Nation and Nancy Nation Jay. Both graduates of Aale High School in Texas (near Ft. Worth) and Nancy has a music degree from Abillene Christian Univeristy. Norma has an English/Journalism degree from McMurry University in Abilene. Nancy lives in Austin and is a member of the Austin Songwriters Group and is on the board of the Gilbert & Sullivan Musicals.

Norma has taught English, Drama and Journalism for years in local high school. She also has one book "Beloved Wife", and "Ol' Blue Eyes" has been published in two different books and the Sinatras have a copy.

NN Music recorded their album with producer Don Reed in Nashville in late 2007, and are ready to present their album to an international audience.

DJ's, radio stations and program directors can download the artwork and music from www.ReadyForPlay.com.
