Amy Fisher Totally Nude & Exposed, A World Television Premiere

(New York, NY) Amy Fisher is Totally Nude and Exposed in her World television premiere, on pay-per-view cable television (PPV) January 12, 2009 at 11:00 PM ET. AMY FISHER: TOTALLY NUDE & EXPOSED is 55 minutes of adult entertainment, starring the "Long Island Lolita" as never before seen, revealing her secret desires in her PPV television debut.

The program is distributed by New York-based MultiVision Media, Inc.

AMY FISHER: TOTALLY NUDE & EXPOSED is allowing the world to see Amy's softer, sexy side with full access to her most personal and private fantasies.

"This is gonna be one HOT hour of television," commented Amy Fisher on her upcoming PPV event. "People have preconceived notions as to who I am based on the bad press throughout the years, but not until January 12th in my PPV "Totally Nude and Exposed" will they see who I really am."

Amy Fisher at the age of 17 was caught up in an infamous sex scandal earning her the title "Long Island Lolita" by the press. The case drew a great deal of media attention, including several made-for-television movies.

In 2007 Amy Fisher was once again the center of controversy, with the release of an unauthorized sex tape of her and her husband. The scandal sparked a media frenzy and renewed public interest. Amy embraced her sexual celebrity creating her official XXX website, AmyFisher.com, set to launch later this month and is on the verge of creating her new production company. AMY FISHER: TOTALLY NUDE & EXPOSED will be the first release from this exciting new company.

The world television premiere of AMY FISHER: TOTALLY NUDE & EXPOSED will be on pay-per-view cable television January 12, 2009 at 11:00 PM ET with subsequent airings throughout the months of January and February. Check your local cable listings for additional times and dates.
