JOHN SHAVE VISITS FIRST OF 36 STATES IN AMERICA

The Berwyn Mountains

BERWYN, IRELAND, April 29, 2009 – On Monday, April 07, 2009 John Shave landed at his initial US destination of Seattle, Washington. Shave is excited to meet with long lost family and friends during his 36 hours in Seattle. He is staying at the Fairmont Olympic and will host a reception for friends and family on Tuesday, April 8, 2009 beginning promptly at 6:00 PM.

Following the in the remainder of Shave's Seattle itinerary Day 1: Spend the first day seeing some of major sights around Downtown. Get up early and stroll to Pike Place Market. Grab a latte or have a hearty breakfast at a market café, and spend the morning wandering through the fish, fruit, flower, and crafts stalls. When I've had my fill of the market, I will head farther Downtown to the Seattle Art Museum or take the steps down to the docks and visit the Seattle Aquarium. I plan to stop at a simple restaurant like El Puerco Lloron to grab a bite to eat. If I'm not too tired, I'll head up to Belltown for a little late afternoon shopping. Have dinner and drinks in either Belltown or Downtown for my first taste of that famous Pacific Northwest cuisine. Then, I'll head back to my hotel and collapse, knowing you won't have to rise with the sun the next day.

Day 2: I'll Take the two-minute monorail ride from Downtown's Westlake Center mall to the Seattle Center. Head up the Space Needle for 360-degree city views. Afterward I'll take in one of Seattle Center's many ground-level attractions: the Pacific Science Center, the Children's Museum, the Experience Music Project, or the Science Fiction Experience museum. For lunch TM head up Queen Anne Avenue North to Galer Street, the Five Spot Caf  is open all day. Then TM head down to the International District to stroll around its streets, visit Uwajimaya superstore, and have dinner in one of its many restaurants.
