

Auberge Gouverneur Shawinigan Newest Sponsor for Zenwaiter.Com

Auberge Gouverneur Shawinigan has decided to support the Zenwaiter,Com website this winter;a four star hotel that offers snowmobile services, comfort, and value with prices starting at $55.

Auberge Gouverneur Shawinigan is the latest snowmobile hotel to sponsor the Zenwaiter website. For ten years, Zenwaiter.com has offered daily snowmobile news and articles covering the snowmobile industry.

Zenwaiter offers daily snowmobile news stories about snowmobile trade shows, snowmobile recalls, safety issues, racing news, and also individual snowmobile trail reports sent in by actual sledders during their holidays. All of this plus a fully interactive site that offers photo albums, a blog, and a bulletin board, makes this site a must read for every snowmobiler.

Zenwaiter also produces a weekly snowmobile radio podcast on Podomatic.com, which is available to download from iTunes.com. Radio broadcasts feature race news, snowmobile events, and a host of snowmobile topics from throttle extensions for mountain riders, to safety tips on how to behave on waterways.

Guests on the show have ranged from film star and extreme snowmobile mountain rider the Krazy Canadian, to interviews with motel owners in Quebec, talking about their local snowmobile club challenges. The show has been recorded on the snowmobile trail, at trade show events, and directly over the phone lines with various interesting guests. The podcast has been downloaded by thousands of snowmobilers world wide from the Internet, and listened to using an i-pod.

The daily advance of Internet technologies is astounding, and lends itself well to the Zenwaiter group of services, but to continue year after year requires the commitment and faith of our snowmobile sponsors. The readers appreciate their support and patronize them faithfully.

Zenwaiter.com want to take this opportunity to thank the Auberge du Gouverneur of Shawinigan, for their faith in our continued work, in this our tenth anniversary of publishing.

Over the years we have added several additional websites for the snowmobiler, including www.zenwaiterwest.com, www.snowmobilephotoalbums.com , www.snowmobilemotel.ca , and www.snowmobilingquebec.com . Our goal is to provide free information to all snowmobilers, with entertainment. We offer a mix of news, humour, and industry updates, while focusing always on the positive aspects of our sport, such as search and rescue assistance, family activities, and the community building aspects of sledding.
