

Amigo Juice is BIG help to This Former Hot Momma

Amigo Juice has been a tremendous help in relieving my hot flashes and other symptoms cause by menopause.

I am so pleased that I found Amigo Juice.

For years I walked around saying, "boy, am I HOT!". I always snickered to myself that I was "One Hot Momma".

I went years without a good nights sleep because of waking up repeatedly because of being so HOT. Then a few minutes later being so cold I couldn't pull the covers up tight enough.

Any of that sound familiar?

Those terrible dreaded hot flashes. I suffered for years. At times mine were so bad I would vomit. It was as though the contents of my stomach "boiled over", because I was so Hot. I know, gross but true

My Dr. put me on HRT and it did help but I was so concerned the harm it may be causing my body, I discontinued taking them.

I set out on a quest to find something natural to relieve my hot flashes. I found a product called Amigo Juice. It is available in capsule or powder form. I have used both but I prefer the powder. I mix it with water or orange juice but my preference is to mix it with either plain or vanilla yogurt.

Amigo Juice contains the 3 super foods. Acai, Mangosteen and Goji. Not only did Amigo Juice help with my hot flashes but my whole body feels better. It may be that ripple effect of getting a better nights sleep. When your able to sleep your not so moody or grouchy. Since your better rested your whole body feels better.

I will admit I took Amigo Juice for a good month before I noticed and difference in my hot flashes subsiding. After a good 3 months the severity was greatly diminished.

When I was on HRT I paid about $30.00 a month for that Rx. Since being on Amigo Juice I have cut down on the amount of vitamins that I take. So cost wise for me Amigo Juice is a great value for my pocket book.

Another nice thing about Amigo Juice is there is no monthly autoship and no MLM to join. Just simply purchase what you want and need. Your buying directly from the manufacturer so there is no middle man involved.

Amigo Juice has been a tremendous help to this former "Hot Momma". Perhaps it will help you too.
