

Zurvita's Service Lineup and Compensation Plan Attracts Top Marketer

"Zurvita Gives You Staggering Income Potential With Diverse Services That Everyone Already Uses! That With An Incredible System Is Your Ticket For Success."

Rhonda Wagner, a successful fulltime online marketer and professional networker is pleased to announce her association with Zurvita, a diversified services mlm that had it's initial launch in 2008 that gives marketers a a diversified line of services that help people save money and services that people are already using each and every day..

The services that Zurvita offers are exciting from energy, cellular, digital voice, shopping services, legal services, healthcare savings (not insurance) and even a virtual office. This lineup gives independent consultants the ability to earn from multiple streams of income in today's market place. With Zurvita you have the ability to earn Immediate Income as well as Long Term Residual Income and in today's economy that is important.

"After an opportunity that I was with for about a year had issues and challenges, it was important to find a company that had the best interest of the distributors at heart, that offered a diverse product line, and incredible income potential, I found all that and more when I found " says Rhonda

The ability to earn from multiple income streams is important, and with Zurvita there is something for everyone no matter what there niche. The great thing with Zurvita is that a consultant isn't limited to just one service or product and that allows the consultant to grow their income in all niches. Rhonda states "The ability to earn a fantastic immediate income while growing your residual income with Zurvita was a very important factor in my decision, this way people have money coming in while their are learning to build and grow their business and this keeps people motivated".

"I see so many smart things this company has done from their service offerings to the new Biz Pak for the Independent Consultants. With the BizPack, (which counts as 3 customer points) you are spending $49.95 a month, and not only getting some great services but also in essence getting $75. back each month! That makes it a no brainer no matter how you look at it, plus you earn residual income on all BizPacks sold in your organization through 6 levels, and that is very powerful." Rhonda exclaims

If you are tired of all the hype out there, tired of people dropping out as they are trying to spend $100's a month on products they are not using, and tired of prelaunch opportunities that fade into the sunset, you owe it to yourself to take a look at Zurvita with a proven team today.
